Spring 2010

Dear Friend of Old Colony Hospice:

Plans for the Old Colony Hospice Golf Classic VIII are underway. We are excited to kick off this year's tournament and invite you to become a corporate sponsor.

Our annual tournament takes place on Monday, July 26, 2010 at Thorny Lea Golf Club in Brockton. Thorny Lea is a private 18-hole championship-caliber course.

We want sponsors to be proud of their affiliation with our tournament and our non-profit organization. Sponsorship packages have been created to tell tournament participants and supporters of Old Colony Hospice [OCH] that you stand with us and want to help ensure the comfort and dignity of those faced with a terminal illness.

How do we recognize sponsors? We will promote your involvement before, during and after the tournament to participants, OCH supporters and the greater community. We utilize press releases, mailings, e-communication, collateral materials, internet exposure [OCH's website and Facebook], and event signage.

How does your sponsorship impact patient care? OCH patients receive care at no charge to them. They do not see bills or have co-pays for their hospice services and equipment. As a non-profit, we meet all of their hospice needs and that is where your support makes a difference.

In the past few years, OCH provided over $100,000 in free care to ensure that patients had everything they needed to stay in their own home for their final days such as the rental of a hospital bed, or the payment for an expensive pain medication.

OCH makes house calls to 100 patients every day. Our highly skilled and dedicated care team ensures the proper treatment of patients with advanced terminal disease in more than 40 communities throughout Bristol, Norfolk and Plymouth counties.

Join us, won't you?

Sincerely,

Linda Werman
Development Manager
